Dear Sir (La Burnett) Ed. 14 June 1776 1771

This comes under the cover of Mr. Gorman who desires of me a thing which I think I ought not to refuse to a friend and old acquaintance, being no more than to let you know who he is as he has not the pleasure of your acquaintance — He is a Gentleman bred to the Law and has practised it several years with success — He has a fortune sufficiently able to support him in parliament and by his abilities in his profession may be of service there — As I have come to the resolution never to meddle in politics I can say no more but so much I think in justice to Mr. Gorman I was obliged to say — Give my kind compliments to Mr. Murdoch and believe me ever to be

Y^r Serv^t — Your aff^l friend & able Perocent J^r La Burnett
